FlinnPREP™ Awarded as “Best Tutoring/Test Prep App or Tool”

Flinn Scientific, a flagship provider of science solutions for the K-16 education market, announced that its blended learning solution, FlinnPREP™ was selected as a winner in the Best Tutoring/Test Prep App or Tool category for the 2019 Tech Edvocate Awards. FlinnPREP™ also received a secondary finalist distinction in the Best Blended/Flipped Learning App or Tool category.

FlinnPREP™ is a cutting-edge blended learning solution developed by Flinn Scientific in partnership with a select team of AP® teachers across the United States. Each course and lab align to the most current big ideas, learning objectives and science practices and fulfills all the requirements for an AP® level curriculum. Each course uses engaging graphics, videos, animations, games, and reteach options to assess student knowledge, provide learning challenges and strengthen basic skills in key topic areas. AP® Inquiry Labs combine the benefits of classroom, laboratory, practice exam questions, and Virtual Reality. All FlinnPREP™ courses and labs are readily accessible from any digital device, 24-7.

“We are proud and honored to receive this recognition from The Tech Edvocate.” said Flinn Scientific, VP of Product Management, Dave Larson “We would like to thank the panel of distinguished judges for their work in recognizing the innovation, passion, and devotion that our organization has for supporting educators and opening the minds of all students.”

Now in its third year, the Tech Edvocate Awards recognize outstanding educational technology products and solutions that support students across the Pre-K-20 arena and identify critical classroom and individual student learning needs. Winners and finalists are selected by a panel of educators and industry experts who review submissions and evaluate products and services based on how they are transforming education through the development or advocacy of education technology. The full list of this year’s award finalists can be found on the Edvocate awards page.
